BURPING

Author: Bronwyn Sutton, Speech Language Pathologist, BEST Autism Therapy

Sometimes I need to burp. There is a burp in my mouth that needs to come out.

Other people don't like to hear loud burps. They say that it isn't good manners.

When I feel the burp coming, I put my hand on my mouth and burp quietly. After I burp I say "excuse me". I know that it is important to have good manners.
