SITTING ON THE FLOOR AT SCHOOL

Author: Bronwyn Sutton, Speech Language Pathologist, BEST Autism Therapy

At school we sometimes sit on the floor. All of the kids sit on the floor and my teacher sits on a chair.

My teacher talks to us and asks us questions.

Sometimes she reads us a book. Sometimes we look at the interactive whiteboard.

When it is time, I go and sit on the floor. I like to lean on the wall.

I sit with my legs crossed and my hands on my legs

It doesn't matter who I sit next to. We all need to sit close to each other.

I help my teacher by listening.

When floor time is over, I wait until my teacher tells me where to go.

I did great sitting on the floor today!
