

THE BIRTHDAY GIRL GETS THE PRESENTS

Author: Bronwyn Sutton, Speech Language Pathologist, BEST Autism Therapy

On Saturday, it is Isobel's Birthday Party. Isobel is having a fairy party at her house. I can't wait to go to the party. I am going to wear my new fairy dress.

Isobel will get lots of presents. Isobel likes presents. I like presents too. At the party all of the presents are for Isobel. I really want to open the presents. It's really hard to watch Isobel get presents, because I want a present too.

We all watch Isobel unwrap her presents. She reads the cards too. I watch Isobel too. I don't touch the presents. They belong to Isobel. When Isobel opens the present from me she says "Thankyou" and I say "You're welcome"

I feel very proud of myself. I just watched Isobel. I didn't try to take her presents. Mum is proud of me too. After presents we cut the cake. It is a very good party. I laugh and laugh.

This story might help you to create your own Social Story™. Social Stories™ should be individualised to the child and should follow the criteria developed by Dr Carol Gray.

Please speak to one of our Speech Pathologists or Occupational Therapists to learn more.